LARGE POLL IN NEW JERSEY.

Harrison Apparently Bunning Be hind the State Ticket.

THENTON, Nov. 8 .- Reports from the countles in the State indicate that a heavy vote is being polled. At Republican Headquarters it is said that Kean, for Governor, is running ahead of Har-rison, and stands a very good chance of being vice of on a close vote. Republicans gen-erally concede that Cleveland will carry the state.

At Democratic Headquarters reports were that Cleveland's plurality would exceed 7.149, that of 1888, and that Judge Werts will be elected Goyernor.

Democrats still claim 13,000 plurality, but the Republicans claim about the same for their party. Indiana never had such a heavy forencon vote. It is a toss up on that State. In Michigan the Republicans concede it very close, and the probabilities seem that the electoral ticket will split even.

Populists and Democrats claim Kansas the Fusion ticket by 30,000, the Republicans figure out a victory by 12,000 to 20,000.

Weaverites claim Colorado. Harrison will have a majority in Montana. The Democratic Populist Fusion claims to have won on the Wyoming electoral ticket. Oregon is claimed by Republicans by 10,000. California is also Republican, as are also Idaho and Washington. Nevada may be placed in Weaver's column. Both Dakotas are uncertain, chances favoring the Republicans.

Minnesota is close, but the Republican have the call.
